

EVIDENCE LOG – JUDGE J

#	Task	Evidence
	List each task to experiment with and then collect the evidence once you have completed the task. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remember each task is an experiment – you don't know the outcome even if you think you can predict it! • Each task needs to be graded by level of difficulty, challenge or perceived threat– start off with an easy task and build up to more challenging ones! 	List ALL evidence from the task. Remember evidence that is admissible in Judge J's court has to be a FACT! Judge Judy will not accept: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HEARSAY – what was told to you or said by another person. • WHAT IF'S – what could/might happen. • MIND READING –what you think another person was thinking. • FEELINGS – just because you feel intense anxiety or FEAR does not mean it is a FACT !

Reviewing your evidence:

Discuss with your therapist ALL the evidence you have collected from any tasks undertaken.

Throw out ANY evidence that is not a FACT and which Judge J would not accept in her court!

Then consider the evidence you have and identify up to 3 things you have learnt from the evidence:
